NodeOne target a minimum demonstrated performance of 90% of the applicable speed profile for the service averaged over the previous calendar month. Service speeds quoted for Your Service refer to the maximum throughput speeds that are achievable when using Your Service under optimum conditions. Fluctuations in service speeds achieved by Your Service are expected over the duration of Your Service. Fluctuations occur due to the nature of telecommunications, electrical and Internet technologies and equipment. Consequently, you acknowledge and agree, that it may not be possible to maintain the service speeds quoted for Your Service at all times.
